Nominations for the Fox Valley Arts Hall of Fame Class of 2020

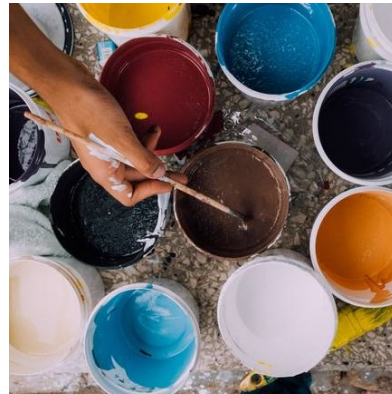

The 10th Class Nominations Open September 1, 2019 and close November 1, 2019

To download a nomination form or to learn more, visit the "Make a Nomination" page for at foxvalleyarts.org Celebrating Lives of Achievement The Fox Valley Arts Hall of Fame got its start during a commemoration for the Millennium. Its main objective is to give public recognition to artists associated with the Fox Valley area by birth, education, residence, or service and who have achieved national or international acclaim. The FVAHF has inducted and celebrated the lives of numerous inductees over the past 20 years. The artists honored with induction every other year represent the visual arts, performing arts, literary arts, media arts and educator/curator/benefactor. Each must have served at least twenty years in his or her profession. This is the 10th class of inaugurating inductees into the Fox Valley Arts Hall of Fame. This 10th class will be announced at Press Day Wednesday, February 5, 2020 10 am at the Batavia Public Library 10 South Batavia Ave. 60510. A black tie /formal banquet will occur on Friday, April 24th 6:00 pm at the Villa Olivia Banquet Hall 1401 W. Lake St. Bartlett IL 60103 to officially induct the candidates into the Fox Valley Arts Hall of Fame. That evening the inductees will be awarded plaques one of which will be hung at Hemmens Cultural Center in Elgin, IL with all the previous FVAHF Inductees from the past 10 years. This 10th class celebration is sure to be the best thus far! You can find more information on our web page foxvalleyarts.org. The second objective of the Fox Valley Arts Hall of Fame is to ensure a strong cultural legacy for future generations. This objective is accomplished through the organizations Founders Series. The FVAHF bi-annually sponsors arts programs in the Fox Valley area particularly helping the arts reach children. The FVAHF is a sponsor of the Ainsworth Youth Concerts put on by the Elgin Symphony Orchestra. This program was a huge success with over 8,000 children from the area attending the program this past spring. The FVAHF believes that the arts are an important part of a child's education and sponsors programs that can reach the most number of children in Fox Valley area. The FVAHF is totally dependent on donations to fund its work. If you would like to donate please make out a check to the Fox Valley Arts Hall of Fame and send it to the Treasurer at 960 Commons Road Naperville IL 60563. **ALL DONATIONS will be recognized in the FVAHF programs 2019-2020.
